A Brief History of SMCC

Southern Maine Community College (SMCC) has grown and evolved over the years. Our mission today is to transform lives and communities through education and training, and welcome, prepare and inspire all to learn, succeed and lead.

Our role is as vital today as it was in 1946, when the College first opened under the name Maine Vocational Technical Institute (MVTI), a day school in Augusta created to serve returning World War II veterans who needed to learn new skills in a post-war economy. By 1952 MVTI and its 156 students had outgrown their space in Augusta and moved to the site of decommissioned Fort Preble, overlooking beautiful Casco Bay in South Portland. During the 1960s the name was changed to Southern Maine Vocational Technical Institute (SMVTI) and authorization was received to award Associate in Applied Science degrees.

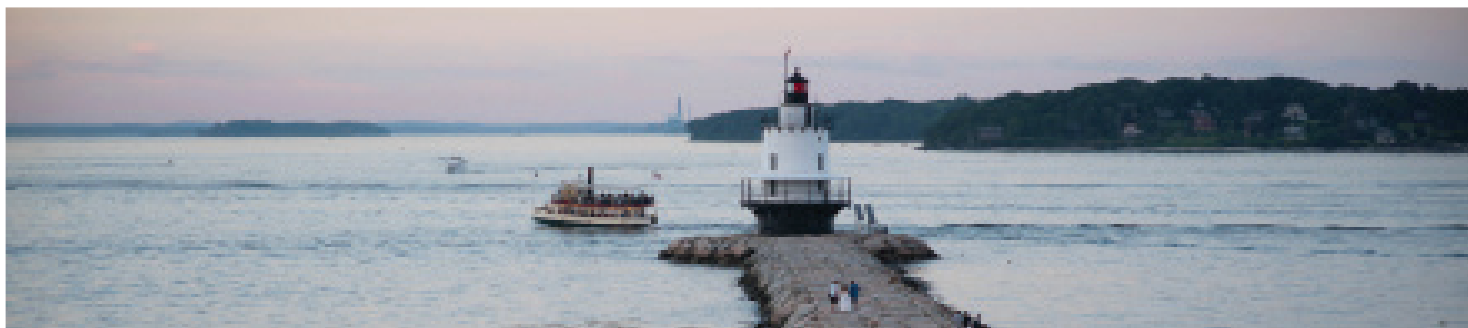

In the late 1980s, the Maine Legislature changed the name of the state's Vocational Technical Institute System to the Maine Technical College System, and SMVTI became Southern Maine Technical College (SMTC). Almost a decade later, in 1998, the College added an Associate in Arts degree in liberal studies to its offerings, a significant step in its evolution to a comprehensive community college.

In 2003 that transformation was complete. Gov. John Baldacci introduced legislation establishing the Maine Community College System – a move that enjoyed strong bipartisan support in the 121st Maine Legislature. The College name was changed once more, this time to Southern Maine Community College.

In 2011, SMCC expanded its effort to provide access to high quality, affordable education by opening a second campus at Brunswick Landing, home of the former Brunswick Naval Air Station. SMCC's Midcoast Campus in Brunswick offers students access to state-of-the-art classrooms and laboratories that support studies in nursing, composites, business, arts and sciences and more.

Today, SMCC students come from across the state and around the globe. Whether they are seeking a degree in the trades and technologies that keep our economy humming, or the arts and sciences that offer a strong and broad educational foundation, SMCC graduates are successful employees, employers and entrepreneurs. Through more than 60 transfer agreements with colleges and universities in Maine and around the country, our students are able to continue their studies in four-year degree programs.

SMCC has come a long way from a small school in Augusta to Maine's largest community college. In the fall of 2019, we served nearly 6,400 students and offered more than 40 degree programs at our campuses in South Portland and Brunswick, satellite community centers, and online. At every step in SMCC's transformation, our College has responded to the changing world and enhanced economic and cultural development for our students and our state.

Ralph Houanche, Nursing

Ralph didn't speak a word of English when his family moved to Maine from Haiti in 2009 to search for better opportunities and escape the political turmoil. He earned a bachelor's degree after high school, and then came to SMCC to fulfill his dream of becoming a nurse.

"SMCC is affordable, and the support I've received from faculty has been great. I feel like I'm part of a community."

Mackenzie Chamness, Business Administration

Mackenzie dropped out because of money and housing issues his first go-around in college. But after several years of working an assortment of jobs, he came to SMCC to move his life forward again.

"I immediately felt better about my life by coming here. This has been a big step forward. I'm shooting for the stars. I want to be a CPA."

STUDENT PROFILE

Students come to Southern Maine Community College for many different reasons: to earn an associate degree, to start their college career affordably and transfer, to launch a new career, or to build their professional and personal skills. Our students have a broad age range with varied educational backgrounds, and come from across Maine and New England, as well as from other states and overseas.

The data in the Student Profile section looks at all credit students enrolled in the Fall of 2019, including both degree-seeking and non-degree seeking students, unless otherwise noted.

Dorcas Ngaliema, Political Science

Dorcas had her eyes set on a specific academic program when she came to SMCC, but the variety of programs allowed her to explore her interests and discover her passion for political science.

"I like that the school encourages students to continue their education after they graduate, and that it teaches students to develop leadership skills. And I like the diversity of the students."

Celina Simmons, Communications & New Media Studies

Celina Simmons pretty much kept to herself when she arrived at SMCC, but she soon broke out of her shell, immersed herself in college life and found her love for graphic design.

"Working on the student newspaper helped me figure out that I wanted to go into graphic design. I think it's important for students to explore everything they can to help them determine what they want to do."

ENROLLMENT

SMCC is Maine's largest community college with over 9,800 individuals served annually at our campuses in South Portland and Brunswick, online and at community satellite centers across southern Maine.

Renee Shi, Alumna

Renee didn't know a word of English when she moved to Maine from China in 2014 and came to SMCC to work on her English skills. She ended up earning a business degree with high honors and transferred to Bentley University to work toward her dream of becoming a certified public accountant.

"Now I'm on my way to pursue my dream. I want to encourage SMCC students to go after your dreams. If I can do it, you can do it."

Will Pease, Alumnus

Will Pease's studies and degree in Computer Science gave him the academic foundation that has led to success at Garmin Ltd. developing apps that support fitness and outdoors products.

"While at SMCC, I also worked as a work-study student in the college's IT department, giving me hands-on work experience while earning my degree."

Adiel Nimbona, Construction

Adiel started at SMCC through the Construction Institute workforce training program. Because of his experience in this program and the encouragement of SMCC faculty, he decided to continue on to earn his associate's degree.

"There is a huge support at SMCC. From the supervisors, instructors, peer tutors, and people who can help you succeed. It's amazing to see what you always wanted to achieve in life, achievable."

Lydia Thorner, Psychology

Lydia Thorner planned to go into nursing when she enrolled at SMCC's Midcoast Campus. But her academic path changed after taking a psychology class and she was drawn into the world of the human brain. Outside of the classroom, Lydia manages the Midcoast Campus good pantry and serves on multiple student committees and clubs.

"Keeping busy and enjoying a complete college experience are essential to my college success. I encourage students to go with their gut on what's right for them."

Student Success Services

ADVISING

Incoming students are required to attend an individual or group New Student Orientation & Advising session to plan, prepare and register for their first semester. Once students are registered for their first semester they are assigned a faculty advisor to discuss course selection and degree requirements. Students are also able to access walk-in advising services with staff through the Advising Office.

CAREER SERVICES

Career Services assists with job searches, career planning, resume development, job fair preparation and more. Career Services is one of the first stops students should make at SMCC to explore possible career goals and the educational pathways needed to take to reach them.

COUNSELING SERVICES

SMCC recognizes the importance of personal counseling to assist students in balancing their academic needs with problems or concerns of a personal, family-related or job-related nature. For that reason, they have partnered with Sweetser to provide counseling services to students. Sweetser bills students insurance companies if they have insurance or SMCC if the student does not have insurance. SMCC will also pay for any co-pay, co-insurance or deductible so that there is no out-of-pocket costs to students.

DISABILITY SERVICES

SMCC is committed to helping qualified students with disabilities achieve their individual educational goals. Upon request and verification of the disability, the College will provide service coordination and reasonable accommodations to remediate the competitive disadvantage that a disability can create in the educational setting.

FINANCIAL AID

SMCC is committed to helping our students and families with finding affordable ways to finance their college education. All students are encouraged to apply for federal financial aid. Many of our students receive assistance in the form of grants and scholarships, loans and work-study.

TRANSFER SERVICES

At SMCC students can start their education and then transfer to a four-year college upon graduation allowing them to earn their bachelor's degree for less. Transfer Services can help students determine what major to enroll in based on their desired degree, explore seamless transfer agreements, plan the steps to take to transfer and prepare for on-campus visits from four-year colleges and universities.

Student Academic Services & Resources

LEARNING COMMONS

The Learning Commons at SMCC integrates the Library, Tutoring and the Writing Center in an active learning space at both our South Portland and Midcoast Campus. It offers students the resources and expertise they need to enhance their learning outside of the classroom to reach their academic goals.

The Library

The Library provides students with a strong and evolving collection of on-site books and periodicals, online access to the collections of libraries throughout the state of Maine, and a growing collection of electronic books, encyclopedias, journals, magazines and newspapers.

Tutoring & The Writing Center

Tutoring Services provide professional and peer tutoring in math, chemistry, physics, writing, English, computer applications, autoCAD and other subjects. Tutoring also offers assistance with test-taking, study skills and other academic success strategies. The Writing Center offers one-to-one writing assistance, drop-in workshops, citation guides and additional resources. The Learning Commons also offers access to online tutoring and writing services.

WISH Workshops

All SMCC students are enrolled in a free Blackboard course called "WISH-My Study Skills" which includes four modules with videos, quizzes and printable certificates. The aim is to give students practical steps they can take to succeed in the classroom and in college. The topics covered are time management, note-taking and reading methods, study skills and test taking.

Students are also welcome to request a one-to-one consultation covering WISH topics with a Learning Commons tutor.

MY MAINE GUIDE

My Maine Guide is an online guide full of great resources for students to help them be successful. The guide has 6 sections: My Degree, My Courses, My Career & Transfer, My Money, My Learning and My Student Life.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

Students have access to over 750 computer at the South Portland Campus and 150 computers at the Midcoast Campus in Brunswick including open student labs.

Student Life

ATHLETICS

SMCC's seven sports teams are members of the United States Collegiate Athletic Association (USCAA) and the Yankee Small College Conference (YSCC), the New England regional league of the USCAA.

SMCC SeaWolves Athletics Teams:

Men's

- Baseball
- Basketball
- Soccer

Women's

- Softball
- Basketball
- Soccer

Co-Ed

- Golf

Student Activities

SMCC strives to keep students engaged inside and out the classroom to help them grow, build connections and develop lifelong friends and mentors. The Student Activities Office is the connection to student organizations, campus activities, community service and leadership opportunities.

FITNESS CENTER AND RECREATION

The College maintains a fitness center in the Hutchinson Union Building (HUB) gym with a full assortment of exercise and weight training equipment. The HUB also offers recreational, wellness and intramural programs. The Midcoast Campus also offers a fitness room in Orion Hall.

HOUSING

SMCC offers a unique opportunity for its students to live on campus. Living on campus adds to their overall experience and presents further opportunities to form lasting friendships. SMCC has two residence halls on its South Portland Campus, Spring Point Hall and Surfsite Hall, and one residence hall on its Midcoast Campus in Brunswick, Orion Hall.

NON-CREDIT OFFERINGS

In addition to our credit courses and programs, SMCC has a variety of non-credit offerings to support workforce training, professional skill building and personal enrichment. SMCC serves thousands of people each year through our Continuing Studies courses, contract training with employers and the Maine Fire Service Institute.

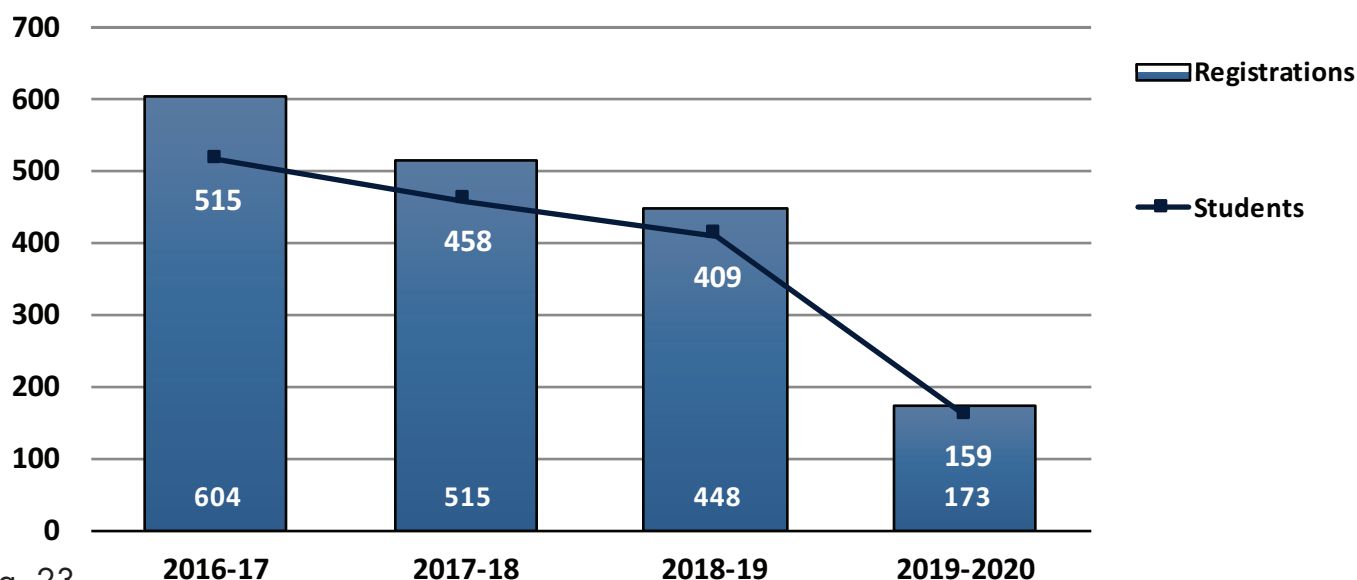

The data in the Workforce & Continuing Studies section looks at all non-credit students enrolled in the Fall of 2019, unless otherwise noted.

Non-credit Enrollment

Continuing Studies Enrollment

SMCC Continuing Studies non-credit courses provide job training and certifications, professional skills, professional education and/or enrichment.

Workforce Development Enrollment

SMCC offers Workforce Training courses which are short-term courses that prepare individuals for employment and are often grant-funded and at no cost to qualified applicants.

Maine Fire Service Institute Enrollment

The Maine Fire Service Institute (MFSI) is a department within Southern Maine Community College whose mission is to assist in the development of skills and abilities in support of Maine's fire service at the local, regional, and state levels in collaboration with the fire chiefs of Maine.

Meg Broderick, Culinary Faculty

Meg likes the diversity of students — from those fresh out of high school to others working in restaurants and bakeries looking to enhance their skills.

"I love doing a cooking demo in class, making eye contact and seeing those 'aha' moments that students experience. I love those 'aha' moments, and you hope that every student has those and is excited about what they're doing."

Mark Reuscher, Business Faculty

Mark loves making a difference in students' lives by setting them up for the real world and teaching them to think outside the box.

"Whenever I see our alumni, they're always saying thanks for the great education they got at SMCC. It makes you feel great."

EMPLOYEES

SMCC is more than an educational institution; they are major employer with more than 600 employees. SMCC has more than 450 full-time and adjunct faculty and nearly 150 staff. Their faculty have extensive work experience in their fields and are closely connected to business and the community.

Zoe Coffin, Electrical Engineering Technologies

Zoe decided to become an electrician because she liked working with wires and solving problems.

"I came to SMCC straight out of high school because it was affordable and close to home.

Raymond Kindingili, Pre-Engineering

Raymond, who is from South Portland, received the Ralph B "Skip" Willis & Gorham Savings Bank Scholarship and is studying at SMCC with the dream of becoming an engineer.

"With the scholarship awarded to me, I will be able to get my degree in Pre-Engineering and eventually transfer to University of Maine to get my bachelor's degree."

FINANCES

The bulk of SMCC's revenues comes from state appropriations and tuition & fees, with additional funding from grants, contracts and other sources. State appropriations have remained relatively flat in recent years, while revenues from tuition & fees have declined. In real dollars, SMCC's tuition has gone down.

The data in this section is from Fall 2019, unless otherwise noted.
